

Evolve into more of a business leader

Bringing today's leading CIOs together with tomorrow's leaders to:

- 1 Create valuable, win-win relationships
- 2 Provide new insight and challenge
- 3 Accelerate professional development

Benefits for mentors

- The opportunity to give something back to the profession that has provided stimulating, useful and rewarding working lives
- The opportunity to have high potentials from your own organisation join the Scheme and experience a range of other IT leaders.

Benefits for mentees

- Exposure to two CIOs for every year of membership, the equivalent of many years' experience in the workplace
- Advice on managing corporate politics, insights into the art of getting things done, wisdom about career management and more.

Benefits for the IT department

- New approaches as a result of interacting with others who have different experiences, skills and knowledge
- Enhanced understanding of the perspective of business leaders.

Benefits for the organisation

- An IT department which provides increased value and business benefits.

‘The role of the CIO is changing and we need to develop the next generation of CIO business leaders to meet the ever-changing needs and demands of our businesses’
 Darren Price
 Group CIO,
 RSA Group

‘The ability to get a second opinion from someone outside your company and industry with more experience is invaluable, particularly if your mentor challenges you to think more widely about a situation. It's been really good and I've learnt a lot about how to be a better mentor’
 Christina Scott
 CIO of the Financial Times Group

We welcome new CIO mentors and mentees.
 Call Brinley Platts on 07973 745 640
